B. Cancellations

1. In the event that Precept Ministries (Singapore) has to cancel the tour due to insufficient sign-ups or unforeseen circumstances arising on our part, we will endeavour to inform you as soon as possible and liability will be limited to a refund of all monies paid to us.

2. In the event that you cancel your booking and notify Precept Ministries (Singapore) in writing; or in the event that this tour, after being confirmed to proceed, is unable to proceed eventually, or is disrupted, or to be cancelled at any point in time due to situation arising that is beyond our control (for example, political, riots, strikes, disaster, Covid-19 or similar outbreaks and related situations like travel restrictions, etc.),

- we will endeavour to work with the respective vendors to see if any form of refund is possible. However, this is not a guarantee, and it depends on a case-by-case basis.

C. Travel Insurance

You are advised to purchase travel insurance immediately after we have informed you that the tour is confirmed to proceed, which should be around January 08, 2027. This is to cover any claims that may arise including the following:

- In the event that you are unable to go for the tour due to any situation arising (including the aforesaid) or any emergencies arising.

  There were indeed past cases where participants have made all the payments but subsequently had to cancel their tour due to emergencies arising at home and they could only try to recover cost from their insurance company.

- To cover unforeseen emergency expenses that you may incur during the tour including any hospitalisation or other situations.

D. Possible Changes

Changes in airline schedules or local conditions may require hotels, itineraries, routings and even airlines or flight schedules to be changed. Should this occur, we will endeavour to substitute with other reasonable arrangements.
